RT. REV. KINSOLVING IN BRYAN TODAY

This Brilliant Preacher Will Conduct Services and Talk to Friends at 11 O'clock Sunday.

The Rev. George Herbert Kinsolving, bishop of Texas, will arrive in Bryan from Austin this afternoon and will administer confirmation to a large class of children and adults at St. Andrew's Church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. The bishop, who has the well earned reputation of one of the most brilliant and eloquent men in the American Episcopate, will be the preacher at that service. Bishop Kinsolving has many ardent admirers in Bryan in the other communions as well as his own who always welcome him warmly and never lose the opportunity of hearing him. He will undoubtedly be greeted Sunday morning by a large and interested congregation.

See! There is Jackson standing like a stone wall.—Bernard E. Bee.

POLLS CLOSE AT 8 COUNT MADE AT 7

Panama-Pacific Contest Got Lively Today and Result Will Be Known Tonight.

The contest which has been running three months or more which will determine who the lady is that gets the complimentary trip with all expenses paid to the great exposition at San Francisco, will close at 6 today, and the result will be known tonight. The committee, composed of Messrs. Bryan, Dulaney and Seale, will begin their work at 7 o'clock, and contestants will be given the result immediately after the count is made if they so desire.

Unusual interest has been taken in the race today, as evidenced by the number of coupon votes required by each dealer, and no one has an idea who will win. The Eagle, without fear of contradiction, must say that no city which is conducting this contest has a finer lot of beautiful young ladies than is running in the Bryan contest, and the winner sent by The Eagle and merchants to represent Bryan will do us credit.

GERMAN SUBMARINE PROBABLY IS LOST

Wreckage Picked Up Indicates U-9 Meets Disaster—Is Craft With Record.

Christiana (via London), Feb. 27.—Wreckage picked up near Christiansand appears to indicate a disaster to the German submarine U-9.

The German submarine U-9 played an important part in the naval activities of the war. It sank the British cruisers Hogue, Aboukir and Cressy in the North Sea on September 23 and eluded pursuit. On October 25 it sank the British cruiser Hawk.

A Dutch steam trawler reported November 1 that it had met the U-9 in a disabled condition off Haaks lightship, near Helder, on the north coast of Holland. Its troubles had been caused by becoming entangled in fishing nets. There have been no reports regarding the U-9 since that time.
